

Application Form for Community Organizing Implementation Ad-Hoc Work Group

The Annual Meeting of the Provincial Assembly in March of 2023 approved Phase 2 of the Strategic Action Plan entitled 'Organizing for Better Schools, Stronger Communities' which included creating an ad-hoc advisory work group.

The Community Organizing Implementation Ad-Hoc Work Group shall advise the OSSTF/FEESO Provincial Executive on any matters related to OSSTF/FEESO's role in community organizing and assisting the Community Organizer in developing materials, resources and trainings for the Organizing Institute. The Work Group will also provide trainings to members and local leaders. Applicants must be able to secure release time to participate in 6-8 meetings for a one-year period as well as some travel across the province and abroad, if necessary.
